Dear Dennis & Leslie,

Good news! I'm delighted to announce that we have contracted with Stephanie O'Shaughnessy to work part time at the Center. She is incredibly qualified, and will focus much of her time on our educational mission, as well as co-curating the Regional Artists Gallery.

In the last few days we sent out a brief survey to those on our mailing list. I hope you received it, and were able to take a couple minutes to fill it out. If you didn't have time, or didn't receive it, please go to this link <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/8SVBBVM> and take the survey. The last day to have your voice heard via the survey is Feb. 8 . If your household has more than one person with an opinion on this, you may each take the survey. If we are to move forward, it's important for us to know what you want in a Center for the Arts.

Thanks for all your help and support! Looking forward to seeing you at the opening of "Galena Memories in Photography". (Don't forget to sign up for staffing hours!)

Carole Sullivan, Executive Director

Galena has seen many changes, and photographs can bring these changes to life. We hope the photos in the exhibit will spark memories and conversations about the changes in the area, and perhaps identification of some people in the photos, or clarifications about the subject matter. GALENA MEMORIES will be an interesting and fun exhibit for old-timers as well as new residents of the area.

ONGOING PROGRAMS

Roy Schroedl specializes in 12-string acoustic guitar. The genre is acoustic rock, the vocals are a cross between Tom Waits, Jimmy Buffett and Cat Stevens. Roy has written the vast majority of the music on four CD's with the acoustic band Okham's Razor. Roy loves to travel, and has performed in New Zealand and numerous other countries including Canada, Australia, Japan and Europe.

Bobby Bradford and Marywood Kate are nomads. Five years ago, this Boulder, Colo., folk duo formed Statue of Liberty, and they've been bouncing around the Midwest and Rockies ever since. Kate's bright, crystal-clean singing complements Bobby's gruff, low-tone style, while her harmonies and vocals add a graceful, wispy element to his finger-picked ballads and roots-rock sketches.

Volunteer of the Month - Stephanie O'Shaughnessy

For anyone interested in the arts in Galena, Stephanie O'Shaughnessy needs no introduction. You have probably been greeted by her warm smile at one of the Center for the Arts openings or admired her artistry and skill during a "Twenty Dirty Hands" tour. She is well known as a dedicated volunteer at the Center for the Arts and as a fine potter. What you may not know is what she does behind the scenes to foster the arts in Galena.

Stephanie—Steph to her friends—first became involved in Vision 2020 at the invitation of her long-time friend, Carole Sullivan. She gives Carole credit for inspiring her and praises Carole's "creativity, generosity, big heart, super-human work ethic, and community focus." When the Vision 2020 Arts Committee evolved into the Galena Center for the Arts, Steph went with it, serving on the Board, and becoming the Co-Curator of the Regional Arts Gallery along with Janet Zehr.

Fostering creativity in the young is one of Steph's greatest passions. A project especially dear to her heart is the Youth Arts Festival, which she chairs. Excited by the success of "YEA! Day," a similar project in Evanston, she presented the idea to the Center's Board. With their approval, and much help from volunteers, the festival kicked off very successfully last year. Preschool to grade twelve students from JoDaviess County public, private, and parochial schools participated in the non-competitive exhibition of their creativity in the arts.

Chairing the Festival for the second year, Steph, who puts in countless hours herself, praises her committee of 12 volunteers:

"We have absolutely wonderful people working on the committee—and we need them all!" Her hope is that the Festival will encourage creativity in students. As she says, "Today creativity is so important in our high tech world. It's more important than ever." With her commitment to the arts and her own creativity, Stephanie is a living example of that belief.

Volunteering is Good for You and Fun too!

Spend an afternoon once a week, every other week, or as often as you like at the Center's reception table welcoming and helping visitors.

Winter hour shifts are Thursday through Sunday from 1:00 to 4:00 PM in February.
