

THE GALENA CENTER FOR THE ARTS

You are invited to a "Wine School" at the Galena Center for the Arts

On Wednesday, Oct 22, the Galena Center for the Arts is offering a special Arts Prism event: "Wine School and Dinner".

Wine School begins with a tour of the gallery's exhibits, featuring Cheers: The Art of the Drink, at 5:30 PM. Guests will convene for study time at Wine School at 6:00 PM, led by Jim Clark, Jim Terry and Ken Winge. The workshop will focus on the ways in which food flavors such as sweet, salty, and acidic affect the flavors of wines. The program is based on the Vine to Dine training program developed by Trinchero Winery in Napa Valley.

Leading the wine study will be Jim Terry, Master Sommelier and former owner/chef at Eldorado Restaurant, Ken Winge, a Wine Consultant and former owner and wine buyer of Galena River Wine and Cheese Shop and Jim Clark, Wine Consultant and former Sales Associate with Southern Wine & Spirits.

After the study, we will find practical use for what we have learned. Participants will gather at Fried Green Tomatoes at 7:00 PM for a wine paired dinner featuring three courses and three wines. (The wines will be different from the ones featured in the workshop.) There will be a short cocktail hour preceding the dinner, with a cash bar. This event will be limited to less than 30 people.

Cost for the gallery tour, wine school, and wine dinner is $55 per person, not including tax and gratuity. Reservations are necessary, and may be made by phoning Fried Green Tomatoes at 815-777-3938, or by logging onto www.friedgreen.tix.com.
